

Website Personal Information Privacy Policy

Your right to privacy and to protect your personal information is important to VERIFI, LLC. We recognize that when you provide us with information about yourself, you trust us to act in a responsible manner. The following discloses our information gathering and usage practices for <http://www.2verifi.com/> and associated websites (collectively our "websites"). Although these sites may contain links to third party websites, VERIFI, LLC is not responsible for the privacy practices followed by non-affiliated companies.

This Website Personal Information Privacy Policy is incorporated into and is a part of the Terms of Use published on our website. View our Terms of Use. By visiting any of our websites, you agree to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy. If you do not consent to this collection, use and disclosure of your information, you should not use our websites.

General Principles

VERIFI, LLC Inc. ("we") respects the interests of all who visit its websites with regard to the collection, use and transfer of certain information. "Personal information" as we use it here refers to that which allows an individual to be identified directly or indirectly and includes the categories of information set forth in the European Community Directive on Data Protection (the "EU Directive") and applicable local legislation.

Proper use and security of your personal information is a high priority for VERIFI, LLC, particularly as we are in the data gathering business. VERIFI, LLC has certified its participation and compliance with the U.S. - EU Safe Harbor Framework and the U.S. - Swiss Safe Harbor Framework, as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce regarding the transfer of information from European Union member countries and Switzerland to the U.S. (see <http://www.export.gov/safeharbor>). VERIFI, LLC is committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the privacy principles set forth in the Safe Harbor program, as well as other applicable laws and regulations.

Types of Personal Information We Collect

When visiting our websites, VERIFI, LLC collects two different types of personal information from you. The first is information you knowingly disclose, which may include your full name, title, company affiliation, work address, work telephone number and work e-mail address. The second is information that is sent to us by your web browser. We do not ask for or collect any sensitive personal data as it is defined in the EU Directive. Where required under applicable law, we obtain users' consent prior to collecting and processing their personal information.

Methods of Collecting Information

VERIFI, LLC collects information from its website users in several different manners. One of the most common methods is during an online form submission or registration process, where a website user is requesting a free trial or a courtesy newsletter, registering for an event, or responding to similar offers such as sample reports, white papers or more product information. Additionally, we may collect information that is sent to VERIFI, LLC by your web browser, such as "cookies." Finally, VERIFI, LLC may collect and aggregate data using third party code. However, data collected by these companies is used only by VERIFI, LLC and is not shared with, nor is it accessible to, other companies except as stated herein.

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to rationalize our portfolio of websites by (i) optimizing traffic to and between corporate websites, and (ii) integrating and optimizing web pages where appropriate. Google Analytics™ is a service offered by Google Inc. “Google” that generates detailed statistics about a website's traffic and traffic sources and measures conversions and sales. Google Analytics uses “cookies” stored on your computer to help analyze how users use our website.

The information generated by the cookies about your use of our website, including your IP address, will be anonymized by use of the appropriate settings (“_anonymize ()” function or equivalent) and transmitted to Google servers in the United States. For more information on how IP anonymization works please see <https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/2763052>

On behalf of us, Google will use the information generated by the cookies for the purpose of evaluating the use of our website, compiling reports on website activity providing us with these reports for analytical purposes.

Google may transfer this information to third parties in case of a statutory obligation or if a third-party processes data on behalf of Google. Under no circumstances, Google will combine or associate your IP address with other data stored at Google.

You may prevent or stop the installation and storage of cookies by you browser settings by downloading and installing the free Opt-out Browser Add-on available at <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en>. We inform you that in such case you will not be able to wholly use all functions of our website.

By using our website, you consent to the processing of any personal data Google will collect on you in the way and for the purpose as described above.

Cookies

When visiting an VERIFI, LLC website, our servers may query your computer to see if there are cookies previously set by VERIFI, LLC. A “cookie” is a text file that is created when your browser visits a website, such as an VERIFI, LLC website. Afterwards, every time you visit the VERIFI, LLC website, your browser retrieves and sends this file to the VERIFI, LLC website's server. Cookies enhance the website user experience by:

- Helping VERIFI, LLC authenticate you as a user when you log in to a secure area of the website;
 - Storing information about your website user activities so you may easily pick up where you left off on the VERIFI, LLC server's pages;
 - Storing your user preferences, which allows you to customize how information is presented through site layouts or themes; and
 - Personalizing the manner in which VERIFI, LLC responds to you via marketing communications.
- The cookies VERIFI, LLC collects may include the following information: a unique identifier, user preferences and profile information used to personalize the content shown to the individual users. It is your choice whether you allow VERIFI, LLC to store such information on your computer or device. You may be able to set your web browser to alert you when a cookie is being used and may use your browser to accept or reject the cookie; additionally, you may also disable the cookie feature on your browser entirely. However, disabling cookies may prevent you from using some features on the VERIFI, LLC websites. Learn more about how we use cookies.

Transfer of Personal Information

VERIFI, LLC may transfer collected personal information to data centers around the world. VERIFI, LLC will implement reasonable security and organizational measures to protect the personal information against unauthorized access, disclosure or loss. VERIFI, LLC will also take steps to provide an adequate level of protection in each data center to which the personal information is transferred. VERIFI, LLC will comply with notification, registration or approval requirements imposed under local law regarding the cross-border transfer of personal information.

Use of Personal Information

VERIFI, LLC may use your personal information for the purposes of providing you with requested information or products; providing you with information regarding similar products, or services; analyzing extent of use; providing customized product and service information; and for allowing website users to participate voluntarily in mailings or other events. Additionally, we may use personal information collected on our websites in the aggregate to better understand your use of our websites and to enhance your enjoyment and experience. For example, we may use the information to improve the design and content of our websites or to analyze the programs and services that we offer. Finally, if a website user is already an VERIFI, LLC customer, or becomes one of our customers during the online registration process, we may use that user's personal information to provide him or her with product service updates, information and alerts.

VERIFI, LLC may disclose a website user's personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (i) comply with legal process served on VERIFI, LLC; or (ii) protect and defend the VERIFI, LLC property rights in and to its products, or the security or safety of its website users and website.

Email Marketing

If you submit a form on our website, subscribe to a newsletter or request specific information, VERIFI, LLC may use the personal information that you enter, including your contact details, to send you follow-up emails relating to your original request. We may also occasionally send you information about similar products, services and events related to your interests, as determined by your original or most recent request for information. If you are an VERIFI, LLC customer, we may occasionally send you information on products, services and events from other areas of the VERIFI, LLC business that we believe may be of interest to you.

Storage of Email Information

VERIFI, LLC may use internal and third-party systems to store your email preferences, the information you submit on request forms and to manage our communications with you. VERIFI, LLC does not share your contact details with any third parties.

Updating Your Information

If your personal information changes, you may update it by contacting us by email. We will make reasonable efforts to update your information as soon as possible.

VERIFI, LLC customers may change or update their profile by following the above instructions, contacting Customer Care, or logging in to their account and following the prompts to "update my profile."

Unsubscribing to Email Marketing

If you no longer wish to receive our email or promotional communications, you may opt-out of receiving them at any time by following the instructions included within each email, or by contacting us via the contact information listed below. A few limited exceptions may exist, but notice is always provided in such communications. Unsubscribing is not available to current customers or its employees.
